To whom it may concern:

PDCA has been working with Chris as a reseller of his video product, "RRP Lead Safe Practices" which gives a real world perspective on the scope of the EPA Renovate, Repair and Painting rule.

This video accomplishes many things:

- Brings the training taught in a contained environment to the real world
- Serves as an invaluable training tool for taking what is learned by one or two people in a classroom to the field for employees
- Gives valuable "tips" that don't cut corners
- Emphasizes the importance of adhering to the rule

Chris has also been a valuable asset to our trade association as a presenter. He has conducted webinars for us and was very well received and provided valuable information in a way our contractors could relate to.

I would recommend both Chris as a presenter and the video he produces to anyone in the construction industry.

Sincerely,

Sally Kennerson
